

BIBLIOGRAPHY OF KEY REFERENCES ON
COMMUNICATION AND THE COMMUNICATION ARTS

Education 261PR
Teachers College, Columbia University
Spring Session 1951

The sections of this bibliography are keyed to the general divisions of the course. Since many items have application to more than one section, cross reference numbers are added at the end of each section to call attention to some applicable books in other sections.

Key to entry notations:

* Means the book is on reserve for this course.

Books reserved for reading in the Library are located by their call numbers as follows:

000-299 Floor 3, Reading Room

300-369 Floor 4, Reading Room

370-699 Floor 3, Reading Room

700-799 Floor 5, Reading Room

800-899 Floor 3, Reading Room

900-999 Floor 4, Reading Room

Those numbered T or X, Floor 5

Magazines and books marked "R" Floor 2, Reference Room

Some of the books in the list not marked with a * may have been put on reserve for other courses. You will have to check with the library for that information.

/ Means the book will be available only at the Library reading room desk.

(M) Means that the entry is a magazine article.

(R) Means that the book may be rented from the Teachers College Library for a period of a week, in some instances longer. Rental books may be reserved in advance by students.
