Dearest Buddy,

It honestly didn't dawn on me whose wedding you were talking about at first, when your letter arrived Saturday.

Priscilla and Danny got to Houston Sunday morning, and things have been going in circles ever since.

I wanted to write you, but again if I write it will never get done.

As to your question, Priscilla and I both feel ~~that~~ in that regard to the theoretical possibilities you should ask Dan to be your best man. Theoretically ~~again~~ it would help to clear up any issues that may have come between you. Actually I don't think Dan would have any double-mindedness in accepting the offer.

To say the least we were ever joyed to hear the news. We'll try to write Roberta some evening this week.

With All of Our Love
to Both of You,

Usins
