

Dear Ones:

Sat. Afternoon.

David is so distressed because ~~he hasn't~~ heard from you in regard to his papers he ~~thought~~ you knew about. He wanted the material for tomorrow evening but I feel sure he will get along somehow. I know you have been busy getting ready for the ~~French~~ ^{German} test. I trust you passed it well, Ralph. I finally got some cookies mailed to Ali today and some to you. You may not be able to eat them, Ralph, but perhaps you will enjoy them Roberta. I just wanted to send some to you folks too. Had a cheerful card from Lucy May today saying she is getting along very well and I am so thankful. Also a happy letter from Betty yesterday saying they are all well and happy and getting settled in their home. We will try to write to Ali tonight. We got a nice card from him telling us about cooking rice for you at your house. I am sure he is lonesome. Hope you two are well and that we will hear soon. Very lovingly,

Mother
